In the Community

GPCU celebrates the Season of Giving

Our branches participated in Community Involvement projects within all of our communities. Ulysses – Held a silent auction to raise money to help people in the community throughout the year. We adopted a family of eight for Christmas and we gave them a microwave oven & gifts for the entire family. Collected can goods and donated to Loaves & Fishes; also gave them a monetary donation of $1,000. We gave money to the Ulysses Animal Shelter for supplies and to the American Legion Auxiliary (they are replacing wreaths for deceased service men & women). Quinter – participated in the USD 293 Angel Tree program & purchased gifts for school children in need. We also donated from our Jean's Day fund to Long Term Care to purchase Christmas gifts for residents. Phillipsburg – Donated our Jean's Day fund to "Remembering Ron" (distributes funds to local residents who are battling cancer to help cover travel costs for treatment). Liberal – Donated $1,500 to Southwest Miracles and $500 to Angels for Animals. We also donated 40 gift bags to Good Sam's residents for Christmas party. Lakin – Sponsored two Christmas Stars via the Kearney County Health Department; presents, coats & gloves are given to kids in need. Donated cookies to the Booster Club for cookies with Santa after the Christmas Parade. Hays – Donated to the Hays Area Children's Center and the USD 489 Foundation Safety project. Hesston – Donated Jean's Day fund to sponsor four children from the Giving Tree to donate gifts to. The Hesston Police department delivers the packages to children before Christmas. Donated $100 to CASA. Donated $1,000 to First Responder Holiday Helpers. They feed families in the community during the holiday season. Ellsworth – Donated $500 to Mosaic to provide Christmas presents for clients without families. Garden City/Taylor Plaza – Donated gifts to the Ranch House nursing/assisted living facility with Jean's Day fund. The Taylor branch also donated 50 stockings filled full of goodies to be delivered to military service members serving overseas during the holidays. Parsons – Bought $150 worth of toys for Toys for Tots. Greenwich – Donated 110 $15 Warren-Regal Cinema gift cards to the Wichita Children's Home.
